Accomplishing Our Purpose in Union with Jesus

It is beneficial for us to train ourselves not only to put up with difficulties but in a certain sense to choose them. That doesn't mean provoking them! But it means that when they do arise, we accept them with all our hearts, by a positive act of freedom, impelling us to move quickly from disappointment to acquiescence based on trust.

... Consider Jesus' words: No one takes my life from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. Here is a paradox. His life was certainly taken from him: he was put in chains, condemned, led to Calvary, and crucified. But this was a death he freely accepted. In his heart was deep acceptance of what his Father wanted. Jesus remained supremely free in his death, because he made it into an offering of love. By his free and loving consent, the life that was taken became a life that was given.

Our freedom always has this marvelous power to make what is taken from us – by life, events, or other people – into something offered. Externally there is no visible difference, but internally everything is transfigured: fate into free choice, constraint into love, loss into fruitfulness. Human freedom... does not confer the power to change everything, but it does empower us to give a meaning to everything, even meaningless things; and that is much better. We are not always masters of the unfolding of our lives, but we can always be masters of the meaning we give them. Our freedom can transform any event in our lives into an expression of love, abandonment, trust, hope, and offering. The most important and most fruitful acts of our freedom are not those by which we transform the outside world but those by which we change our inner attitude in light of the faith that God can bring good out of everything without exception... Positive things become a reason for gratitude and joy, negative things an opportunity for abandonment, faith, and offering.

The KJT District VIII Fall social and meeting will be held at Frenstat Recreation Center for all District VIII members, their families and guests on Sunday, November 10, 2024 beginning with registration at 11:30 AM. The wonderful turkey and dressing meal will be served at 12:00 noon. We will require a charge of $10.00 per adult and $5.00 for 12 and under for the meal. A short meeting will follow. Donations of door prizes from your society are welcome. District VIII will provide all the food, drink and dessert. It is important that you notify your Society President or Secretary one or two weeks before if you will be attending as the District needs a head count to order the food. All are welcome!"

The Knights of Columbus Council 11277 extends a warm THANK YOU to all who participated in last Sunday's Fundraising Luncheon, benefiting the new Family Life Center! It was a great success!

THE HISTORY OF THE PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL.

On October 13, 1884, Pope Leo XIII had a vision. When the Pontiff had finished celebrating Mass in his private Vatican Chapel, he suddenly stopped at the foot of the altar. He stood there as if in a trance, his face pale white, for about 10 minutes before going to his office. Shortly thereafter he composed the prayer to St. Michael, with instructions for it to be said after all Low Masses everywhere. When asked what had happened, he explained that, as he was about to leave the foot of the altar, he suddenly heard two voices – one kind and gentle, the other guttural and harsh. They seemed to come from near the tabernacle. As he listened, he heard the guttural voice of Satan tell God that he could destroy the Church if he had 75 – 100 years and greater power and influence “over those who would give themselves over to my service.” God granted this to him, just as He did many millennia ago, granting Satan power over Job.

In 1965 the obligation of reciting Leonine Prayers (Prayer of St. Michael, three Hail Marys, and the Hail Holy Queen) after weekday Masses ended. While many parishes ended this practice, it was not forbidden. In 1994, Pope John Paul II recommended reintroducing praying the Prayer of St. Michael. “Although this prayer is no longer recited at the end of Mass, I ask everyone not to forget it and to recite it to obtain help in the battle against the forces of darkness and against the evil spirit of this world.” – Pope John Paul II, Regina Caeli, April 24, 1994

Of course, it should be understood that this prayer cannot be a part of Holy Mass, because then it would become a liturgical abuse, and we don't want that. But when we pray it after the Mass whether on weekend or weekday it can become a blessed instrument at our disposal to fight the evil that wants to destroy us..

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

In Latin: Sancte Michael Archangele, defende nos in proelio contra nequitiam et insidias diaboli esto praesidium. Imperet illi Deus; supplices deprecamur: tuque, Princeps militiae coelestis, Satanam aliosque spiritus malignos, qui ad perditionem animarum pervagantur in mundo, divina virtute, in infernum detrude. Amen. To read more see: <https://aleteia.org/2018/10/28/what-are-the-leonine-prayers-and-why-were-they-created>

For Respect Life Month, the Knights of Columbus have donated pro-life Yard-signs for our parishioners. If you wish to take 1 or 2 for your yard, they can be obtained at the back of church after Masses, or at the parish office. You may choose to display them continuously, or occasionally, but the Knights ask that when you're finished with them, to please drop them back at the parish office, rather than discarding them.

Remember to drop off your BABY BANKS today! Thank you for being so committed to Life! Your donation will help pro-life efforts in our parish and throughout the diocese. Walking with Moms, In Need Initiative, the Gabriel Project, Project Rachel, Sidewalk Ministry, Pro-Life Help Line, and more will receive funds from this campaign.

This Week's Message:

"Jesus makes charity the new commandment. By loving his own 'to the end,' he makes manifest the Father's love which he receives. By loving one another, the disciples imitate the love of Jesus which they themselves receive. Whence Jesus says: 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love.' And again: 'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1823)
