FROM ALL ISRAEL NEWS ON THE OPENING OF OLYMPICS.

Like many Israelis, we watched the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games in Paris with great interest and anticipation.

Yet, like many Christians around the world, we were disgusted and outraged when those Games opened not simply with a traditional display of its country's history and culture, but rather with a ceremony reminiscent of Leonardo Da Vinci's famous painting depicting the Last Supper.

With the eyes of millions of watching – among them, many children – the beloved painting showing Jesus and His disciples was twisted into a grotesque display of “drag queens.”

After an eruption of widespread outrage and condemnation, the International Olympic Committee (IOC) somewhat lamely apologized, stating, “There was never an intention to show disrespect to any religious group.”

Rather, the ceremony “tried to celebrate community tolerance,” an IOC spokeswoman said, adding: “We believe this ambition was achieved. If people have taken any offence, we are really sorry.”

If?

Yes, many followers of Jesus – ourselves included – were both disgusted and offended by the Olympic Committee's decision to publicly insult the world's largest religion.

There are more than 2 billion Christians in the world.

Doesn't mocking our Savior and our faith go directly against the IOC's stated values?

Isn't the aim of the Games to celebrate “sport practiced without discrimination of any kind and in the Olympic spirit, which requires mutual understanding with a spirit of friendship, solidarity and fair play?”

Yet, more and more, mocking Christians seems to be “fair play” all over the globe.

Increasingly, we see woke ideology celebrating a type of “diversity” that seems to eschew discrimination against all religions and creed except for believing Christians and Jews.

Instead, Christians and Jews who take their faith seriously are ridiculed, marginalized, painted as “bigoted,” and excluded from the hallowed halls of “inclusivity.”

It is not by chance that the liberal and progressive rejection of traditions and limitations seem to target Christianity the most readily.

Yet, this should serve us as a reminder to take our faith with the same seriousness as those who hate it seem to do.

Among the most widespread reactions to the opening ceremony was the simple question: Would they have similarly mocked any other religion?

Bazaar 2024: this year will be on September 1st!

Typically, one of our largest money makers at the Bazaar is the Grand Auction.

PLEASE CONSIDER DONATING FOR THE AUCTION IF YOU HAVEN'T DONE SO ALREADY; (we don't need your item(s) or cash donation immediately, just your commitment!).

If you would like to donate for the Auction, contact Crystal (979-251-4048).

WE ARE ALSO IN NEED OF GIFT CARDS FOR TARGET THE CARD—in denominations of $10 or more. We ran out of cards early, last year, so this year we're doubling our goal—we'd like to have 200 cards, so please donate! This is one of our good money making booths! If you are donating cards to "Target the Card" please turn in your receipts when you turn in the cards. We will retain them in our records in case there is a problem later with no money on the card. We have had this happen several times and luckily we had the receipts.

We also need items (or monetary donations) for the Country Store booth, and the Toy Booth. For your convenience, you can put them in the box inside the entrance of the church, if you wish.

We are in need of volunteers to go and sell raffle tickets at other parishes (contact Virginia Malinowski). More information will be forthcoming in the Bulletin.

Kelvin Mikolajchak is the General Chairperson, and you may call him at 979-277-2906 if you have any questions or can help in any way. Nathan's BBQ will be catering this year; meal tickets will be priced at $15.

The Raffle Tickets for our annual Bazaar are here and ready for distribution. Please pick-up your packet which includes Raffle/Meal tickets this weekend. Carefully read the enclosed letter as there is some very important information about deadlines and procedures. If you should need additional tickets, contact (Virginia-Raffle tickets / Michael Bronikowski at 979-277-5010 or parish office-Meal tickets). Each packet will have instructions. We have $14,300.00 (30 prizes) on the ticket this year and they should be easy to sell. This year we are asking each parishioner to sell/buy at least 12 books.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

This Week's Message:

"As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens our charity, which tends to be weakened in daily life; and this living charity wipes away venial sins. By giving himself to us Christ revives our love and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in him:

"Since Christ died for us out of love, when we celebrate the memorial of his death at the moment of sacrifice we ask that love may be granted to us by the coming of the Holy Spirit. We humbly pray that in the strength of this love by which Christ willed to die for us, we by receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit, may be able to consider the world as crucified for us, and to be ourselves as crucified to the world... Having received the gift of love, let us die to sin and live for God."

*St. Fulgentius of Ruspe, Contra Fab. 28, 6-19: CCL 19A, 813-814.

*In raining down bread from heaven upon the whole Israelite community, the Lord wanted them to "know that I, the Lord, am your God." Similarly, when Jesus reveals to the crowd that he is "the bread of God which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world," he reveals that "on him, the Father, God, has set his seal." When we believe in Jesus as the one sent from God, we "learn Christ," as Saint Paul says, which means that we discover that the "truth is in Jesus" and have our minds renewed by God's own righteousness. In the Holy Eucharist, we find nothing less than Jesus himself, the bread of life. We believe, we adore, we consume—never to hunger again.
