HAVE A BLESSED CELEBRATION!

DOZYNKI AND BAZAAR IN CHAPPELL HILL, TEXAS.

DOZYNKI A HARVEST FESTIVAL is an annual thanksgiving celebration for the crops harvested from the fields, and is traditionally held at the end of August or beginning of September. In Poland almost every rural community and region has its own dozynki, but the dates are different, unlike a Thanksgiving Day in America. Although the name of the festival might vary locally, these traditions have been passed from generation to generation with a very deep religious significance. Once it was celebrated by pagans, now by Christians.

Polish writer Ignacy Krasicki referred to it in his work, Pan Podstoli ("Lord Podstoli"), written in the second half of the 18th century. The ceremony took place around sunset. Singing reapers came to Lord Podstoli's house, who together with his wife welcomed them standing in the porch. He was given a wreath made of crops' ears and was addressed by an old man. After that Lord Podstoli gave a speech; he praised God for His protection, then thanked his subjects for "faithful work", promised to support them like a father, and finally invited them to a feast that he prepared for them in the courtyard. Lord Podstoli sat at the table with the men, and his wife Pani Podstolina (Lady Podstoli) with women, the daughters of the hosts with maids, and the sons of the hosts with farmhands. Before they started to eat, they listened to a priest's preaching about "how to use God's gifts with gratitude and appropriate joy" and had the food blessed. There was music, singing and dancing till late at night. Lord Podstoli asserted that the above custom was handed down unchanged from generation to generation and he "recommended" his children to keep it.

In modern days, when there is no lower or upper class in the society Dozynki Festival takes place either on church grounds or in public places. The traditional żniwiok, as dozynki are called in the region of Opole, always began with a solemn Mass in the church, where thanks were given God for His blessings of the farmers' work. During the Holy Mass, dozynki wreaths were put in front of the altar and blessed by the priest (as shown on the picture). After leaving the church the celebration continues with the occasional song "Plon niesiemy Plon. W Jegomosci dom. Bodaj zdrowo plonowala, po sto korcy kopa dala. Plon niesiemy, plon". In English: "Carry harvest yield, to squire from the field.

May the harvest give its bounty, biggest crop yields in the county. Carry harvest yield". May God bless our farmers and all our hard working people and their families wherever they are.

This Week's Message:

"The sixth beatitude proclaims, 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.' 'Pure in heart' refers to those who have attuned their intellects and wills to the demands of God's holiness, chiefly in three areas: charity, chastity or sexual rectitude, love of truth and orthodoxy of faith. There is a connection between purity of heart, of body, and of faith:

"The faithful must believe the articles of the Creed 'so that by believing they may obey God, by obeying may live well, by living well may purify their hearts, and with pure hearts may understand what they believe.'"

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2518)
