FROM THE HISTORY OF DEVOTION TO THE PRECIOUS BLOOD OF CHRIST

This Feast established in 1849 although relatively recent is worth honoring and considering after having completed the month of June, which is dedicated to the honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. However, devotion to the Precious Blood of our Lord stretches back long before the establishment of July 1st feast day.

Devotion to the Precious Blood is connected to devotion to the Passion and Death of Our Lord since through the shedding of His Blood, mankind was redeemed. Consequently, one can say the Church has always honored the Blood of Jesus Christ. Romans 5:9 states, “we are justified by His blood”, and Hebrews 13:12 states, “and so Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people by His blood, suffered outside the gate.” 1 John 1:7 also writes of the Precious Blood: “...and the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin.” We would do well to meditate on the seven times Christ shed His Precious Blood for our salvation.

Closer to our modern era, devotion to the Precious Blood has been greatly encouraged by St. Gaspar Buffalo, founder of the Congregation of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. Pope Pius IX was exiled from Rome in 1849. A companion of Pope Pius IX was Don Giovanni Merlini, the third general of that Congregation. Don Giovanni Merlini suggested to Pope Pius IX that he make a vow to give the Feast of the Precious Blood to the entire church if he should regain the papal territory. The Feast, however, had been celebrated beforehand by the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood on the Friday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent.

We owe the institution of a special feast in honor of the Precious Blood to Pope Pius IX. It was Pope St. Pius X who transferred the feast from the first Sunday of July to July 1st. And it was Pope Pius XI, who raised the rank of the feast day, in commemoration of the 19th centennial of the mystery of the Redemption.

The refinishing of the church doors was completed this week.

There are some hand-crafted religious cards available at the rear of the church.

They are blank inside, and can be inscribed for any occasion.

A small donation would be appreciated, with all proceeds benefiting local families in need.

This Week's Message:

“The way of perfection passes by way of the Cross. There is no holiness without renunciation and spiritual battle. Spiritual progress entails the ascesis and mortification that gradually lead to living in the peace and joy of the Beatitudes:

‘He who climbs never stops going from beginning to beginning, through beginnings that have no end. He never stops desiring what he already knows.’”

*St. Gregory of Nyssa, Hom.in Cant. 8
(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2015)*
